PARIS HAS OWN QUIET GAMING

(Correspondence Associated Press)

PARIS, May 2.—It may not be generally known that Paris has its own little Monte Carlo a few miles from its gates, with a beautiful Casino where roulette and other gambling games may be played, and containing a club (without any intricacies of election) where bacarat and La Vie may be indulged in. The name is Enghien-les-Bains, the baths and mineral waters of the little town being of medical value sufficient to cover the Casino as a necessity for its visitors.

The dangers of a gambling center at the very gates of Paris led to the chamber of deputies to vote in 1913 that no casino should be allowed within 60 miles of the capital. The bill was still before the senate when the war began and Enghien's casino became a hospital and is to be brought up for discussion again soon.

WEIRD STORIES OF THE YANKEE ARMY ABROAD

(Correspondence Associated Press)

COBLENZ, May 3.—Some fantastic fiction is published in German newspapers by writers from Frankfurt and Leipzig who have visited Coblenz and returned home to write whatever they may please about the American army. Many of the stories they tell are new to the officers of the third army who count them as German propaganda.

One writer of a long article in the Leipzig paper dealing with life in Coblenz relates alleged cases of ridiculous sentences imposed upon Germans by the American army courts. In one case he says that the wife of a government official, "annoyed on the street by a drunken soldier exclaimed in her anger: 'If only all the Americans would go to the devil!'" The military court, he says, punished her for "this religious wish" by sentencing her to appear every morning for thirty days at the headquarters of the commanding officer and repeating to those present the phrase: "I am glad that you are still here, gentlemen, and it is my wish that you continue to stay here for a long while."

This is all news to the American officers. If any woman appears at headquarters every morning, the sentries on duty there have failed to notice it. It is part of their job to prevent trespassing by Germans at the main entrance of the third army headquarters.

Another fictitious tale narrated by the Leipzig writer to arouse German dislike for Americans, deals with a case in which a woman, splashed by mud from an automobile ejaculated, "those dirty American automobiles."

ELECTORAL CHANGES IN THE FRENCH LAWS

(Correspondence Associated Press)

PARIS, May 4.—Representation of minorities is assured under the new French electoral law passed by the French parliament, which will probably bring about considerable change in the strength of parties in the Chamber of Deputies. The most recent enactment almost abolished entirely the old system of choosing members, which provided for a second ballot in case candidates did not poll an absolute majority of the votes in their constituency.

LONG LOST BONDS

BOB UP AGAIN

Small Fortune for Espee Head Astray
In Strong Box for Years

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—E. O. McCormick, vice-president of the Southern Pacific company, arrived here from San Francisco, between $25,000 and $30,000 better off than he was the day before.

Several years ago, when Mr. McCormick had his offices in the Flood building at San Francisco, he lost track of his safe, because of the many changes he made in the office rooms in the building. Yesterday, when Francis J. Mann, an attorney for the company, discovered a strong box in a safe he had just inherited with other office fixtures, he started to pry it open. The box withstood all of his efforts, and he was forced to send for a locksmith. When the box was opened, the bonds lost by Mr. McCormick were found.

For this the Leipzig Munchausen avers a military court sentenced her to climb the fortress of Ehrenbreitstein daily at 5 a. m. for thirty days carrying a pail, scrubbing brush and scouring rag and to clean six American automobiles. Upon completion of this task, he asserted, she was required to walk back home similarly equipped.

Another fantastic tale told by the Leipzig journalist is of a sentence which he declares was imposed upon a hotel owner whose nerves could no longer stand the "wild music" produced by the American bands and who commented upon it unfavorably. In punishment, the fiction writer claimed, the hotel man was sentenced to march daily for thirty days alongside the band and after its parade to tell its leader, "sir, your music pleases me to perfection."

American intelligence officers are endeavoring to ascertain through what channels the Leipzig correspondent obtained the alleged "information" while in Coblenz, particularly stories about the fines and sentences imposed upon women. Court records do not reveal any such cases.

Under the new scheme the election would have resulted differently.

At the first ballot no candidate polled an absolute majority of the 53,798 votes cast, to do which a poll of 26,896 votes would have been necessary. The Conservative candidate obtained an average of 17,333 votes each; the Opportunists, 10,954; the Radicals, 24,223 and the Socialists, 297. At the second ballot the Radical list was elected in its entirety with a majority for each candidate. The parties which polled the smallest totals have dropped out.

Under the new scheme the election would have resulted differently.

DOLLAR TO DAUGHTERS

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—William J. Baker, former mining operator of Wallace, Idaho, left all but $2 of his $80,000 estate to his widow, Mrs. Louisa K. Baker of 1627 Painesville place, Los Angeles, according to a will filed for probate yesterday. Mr. Baker died here May 11. He left all to Mrs. Hester Baker Hillard, a daughter, of El Centro, and to Virginia D. Baker, a daughter, with the understanding that the widow will care for their interests.
